

I do not wish to see Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law weakened by the application of federal guidelines that would allow an "established business relationship" exception.